~Leave home and Rhizome~ ~Unnumb and Become~

Are you ready to embark on an intellectual adventure like no other? Join us for the 10th Deleuze and Guattari Studies in Asia Camp! Imagine spending two days immersed in thought-provoking lectures and lively discussions with renowned experts who have made significant contributions to Deleuze studies. Each day, you'll participate in 6 engaging sessions where our guest lecturers will share their insights and experiences, making complex concepts accessible and exciting.

Our camp is more than just a series of lectures. It's a chance to ask burning questions, share your perspectives, and engage in stimulating group discussions. You'll connect with like-minded peers and mentors, forming a vibrant community of thinkers ready to explore new ideas and challenge the status quo.

Register now and prepare for an unforgettable experience!
