Summary

Collaborative Workshop

Sacred Immanence: Reimagining the Earth in a Time of Planetary Crisis

- Dates: June 22 (in Taipei), June 29–July 3 (in Frankfurt), 2026
- Venue: Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany
- Theme: Addressing the ecological crises of the present requires rediscovering or reinventing a sense of the sacred – thus argued Deborah Bird Rose, along with many other thinkers in the environmental humanities. In this workshop, we will explore what forms this project could take in places as culturally and historically different as Germany and Taiwan.
- OBE subsidy for each student: NT$45,000 max. (only for students with ROC citizenship)

Workshop

Instructors:

Hannes Bergthaller

Roland Borgards

Reading:

- Deborah Bird Rose, “Multispecies Knots of Ethical Time” (2012)

Workshop Schedule

Dates	Contents
6/22 (Mon)	Preparatory session (online; with Hannes Bergthaller): discuss organizational issues, overview of workshop procedures and goals
6/28 (Sun)	Arrival in Frankfurt
6/29 (Mon)	Screening and discussion of All that Breathes (2022)
6/30 (Tues)	Reading and discussion of Deborah Bird Rose, “Multispecies Knots of Ethical Time”
7/1 (Wed)	Group visit to exhibition Vogelperspektiven at Museum Sinclair-Haus, Bad Homburg
7/2 (Thu)	Student presentations and concluding discussion
7/3 (Fri)	Field trip to Cologne (optional)

Subsidy
